NOTES

Guatemala: Anxiety has increased among some rightists, who feel that President Mendez is being too harsh on them in enforcing the state of siege instituted on 3 November. Mendez recently rejected an appeal from the right-wing National Liberation Movement (MLN) for the release from jail of its leaders who are charged with plotting. [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] these rightists complain that the government seems unable to apprehend extremists of the left. [redacted]
